BOROUGH GAINS SOME IN FINANCIAL WAY

Auditor's Report Shows Affairs Are Pretty Well Balanced.

IT CONTAINS FEATURES

In matters of finance the borough of Charleroi is not getting very much ahead. But it is keeping well balanced and that is what most boroughs strive for. Auditors Louis J. Mitchell and H. F. Parsons have just completed their audit of the books of the borough treasurer, tax collector and the borough solicitor for the fiscal year which ended December 31, 1912, and this week the result of the audit was published in the auditor's report. At the end of the year, or rather at the beginning of the present fiscal year there were just $2,312.32 in the treasury. This is hardly more than enough to pay one month's bills. However, it affords an interesting comparison with the cash on hands at the beginning of the year 1912. Then there was in the treasury a balance of $129.90.

Receipts Good.

The total ordinary receipts for the year were $39,070.52, and the extraordinary receipts amounted to $11,881.10. Of this latter sum, $10,000 was reported received in loans contracted by the borough, the purpose being to tide over the year. The remaining part of the extraordinary receipts is variously apportioned between liens of a minor nature, miscellaneous items and interest, and engineering receipts.

Tax receipts contained in the report of ordinary form the bulk of receipts with the 1912 taxes of course being heaviest. Gross receipts of taxes $2,645.59 were the gross receipts were $30,061.56. For 1911 taxes $2,615.59 were the gross receipts, for 1910 taxes, $1,297.21 and for 1909 taxes $773.12. Uncollected taxes at December 31, 1912 amounted to $5,129.50. Uncollected taxes for 1911 were $3,997.18, for 1910, $3,435.27 and for 1909, $399.17. Of the 1912 taxes most were paid at discount. In fact all but $1,953.21 of the taxes paid that year of $28,111.32 were satisfied at discount, the remainder being paid at face.

Liquor Licenses $798.

Licenses in the borough amounting to $1,727.09 were paid. Dog tax was $307. In the list of miscellaneous items one of the most interesting figures is that of $798 received from liquor licenses. Burgess fines form another interesting item, amounting during the year 1912 to $785.85. The miscellaneous receipts are mostly small and total in the aggregate to $2,253.86.

Paving Cost Borough $525.35.

There are several smaller items contained in the list of ordinary expenditures that come under the general head of miscellaneous. The total amount of ordinary expenditures is given as $36,697.96. Extraordinary claim of $156.26, totaling for the three stretches $525.35. This represents all the paving that was done during the year of 1912.

Loans paid to banks were $12,700; interest on loans was $257.16; sidewalk expenditures were $57.30 and general sewerage cost $526.49.

Snug Sum Paid In Salaries.

Salaries and supplies figure up to a snug sum as shown in the report of expenditures. Salaries and supplies for the police totaled $2,921.99, with supplies for the police patrol being expenditures amounted to $12,066.30. The most interesting of the figures in the list of extraordinary expenditures is that paid for paving. For paving Peach alley $226.80 was paid; for paving Seventh street $142.29 was paid and for paving Eighth street the borough satisfied a contractor's put in at $632.62. Over in the list of resources the police patrol automobiles are given a value of $1,400. Salaries of the street department hire we e for the year $4,880, and the total expenses for the street department were $6,351.67. Fuel and light cost the borough $4,621.79, and water and fire plugs $2,148.11. Towards maintenance of the fire department $941.85 was spent. The sum of $1,160 was paid off on the sinking fund. Engineering salaries and supplies amounted to $2,003.35.

Bond Expenditures High.

Bond expenditures constitute a good part of the ordinary expenditures. On 1894, 1896, 1899, 1901, 1904, and 1907 bonds interest was paid totaling $5,860, the most interest accruing on 1890 bonds being $2,930, and on the 1901 bonds, being $1,507.50. Payments were made on bonds as follows: 1894, $1,000; 1896, $500; 1899, $2,900, totaling in all $1,500.

Resources Accounted.

The grand total of resources is given as $240,935.59, with liabilities at the same figure. Cash in the treasury with uncollected taxes for four years added amounts to $12,747.61. Tax liens entered for taxes that should have been paid during regimens of former tax collectors totaled in one item to $674.51, and in another to $236 and in another $183.77. Liens entered for 1909 taxes are reported at $204.78.

For the purpose of satisfying bond issues there was a sinking fund credited of $9,230, with interest on the sinking fund being $1,476.76. Paving liens uncollected on Crest avenue and on Lincoln avenue aggregate $1,724.39, while sidewalk liens on Shady Crest and Meadow avenues total $283.57.

Equipment Worth a Lot.

In the inventory of equipment the announcement is made that the police station house and lots is worth $6,100. The borough building and lots ought to sell for $10,600 according to the audit, and the garbage furnace is worth $5,800. In other words the three properties are valued at $22,500. Furniture and fixtures in the council room are valued at $230, printing and stationery is valued at $250, and engineer supplies are set as worth $409.98.

Equipment owned by the fire company is inventoried at the figure of $6,600 and the fire alarm system is valued at $6,125, making a total of $12,725. Street department resources are $2,148. Resources not counting the paved streets and alleys and public sewers are $68,614.02. Paved streets and alleys are valued at $58,921.31 and the sewer system at $112,381.29. Accounts receivable for paving and due the treasurer on 1911 taxes total together $521.97.

Bond Issues Enumerated.

In the list of liabilities bond issues are enumerated. The 1899 issue was the big one, with the issue of 1904 being second. The 1899 figure is $9,000 and the 1904 figure is $32,000. The total amount of bonds as shown by the audit is $137,400. Interest on coupons outstanding for three issues amounts to $700.

Net present worth December 31, 1911 was $91,967.38. A gain of $10,556.48 was credited during the year, bringing the net present worth at December 31, 1912 up to $102,523.86.

DATE IS ANNOUNCED FOR MACCABEE OUTING

Eldora Park to be Scene of Gathering on August 20-- Other Events Are Announced For Next Few Weeks

With the summer amusement resort season nearing the latter part of the first half period, Eldora park is at its busiest. This is the time of year when the town and Sunday school picnics are usually featured, and several have already been booked. The date was made known today for the annual outing of the Lady Macabees of the Monongahela valley and this will be one of the leading features of the entire year. The outing will be held on August 20. Musicians of the Monongahela valley are planning to give a dance on Friday, August 15 and the day will be held open probably for a musician's outing.

There are two plans for the coming week, one of which will attract a party of excursionists from as far away as Uniontown. This is to be the annual picnic of the Uniformed Rank, colored Knights of Pythias from the Monongahela valley. Elaborate arrangements have been made for the event by the colored people. The committee looking after the details is composed of William Boyle, Charles Stewart, George Lawson, Philip Johnson, Chalk Palmer and Nevy Washington. The other picnic next week will be that of the Hebrew ladies from Denora on Wednesday. Announcement is being made by the Dono a Lodge of Elks for a private dance they propose to hold at the park on the evening of Friday, August 1.

TWO TERMS ELECTION NOT GOOD IMPORTANT

Bill Permitting Burgess- North Charleroi Has Important Borough Offices to Fill

Burgess George W. Risbeck would not be in a position to succeed himself as Burgess of Charleroi, should he so desire. Gov. J. K. Tener has just vetoed the measure permitting a Burgess to succeed himself and this sets at odds any hopes of the present Burgess had of inducing to be a candidate for re-election. It also denies to Burgess Harry W. Scott of North Charleroi the right to succeed himself. The way the bill read which was vetoed by Gov. Tener was to make a chief Burgess eligible to office for the next succeeding term.

TERRIFIC STORMS ARE REPORTED WILL NOT EMPLOY BOYS UNDER 16

The heaviest storm of recent years visited Washington and Greene counties Thursday. There was a terrific downpour of rain, in some places the deluge developing into a cloudburst. At least a dozen houses were struck by lightning and the damage wrought by the rain and lightning amounts to thousands of dollars. In the southwestern part of Washington county fields are inundated and the crops have been washed out by the water. Many buildings have been washed away and much live stock has been drowned. At least six bridges in the same section have been washed from their foundations. All telephone lines are out of commission.

IMPORTANT OFFICES TO BE FILLED THIS FALL

Unusual Charter Granted

An unusual charter issued at the Capitol has just been signed by the Governor. It is for Charleroi Lodge No. 103, Loyal Order of Moose. Several organizations are generally chartered by courts when they desire to hold property, but this lodge has a $5,000 capital, just like a manufacturing company. The incorporators are John Peach, Allenport; John F. Umbel, Frank G. Bailey, John M. Flett, John G. Albright and S. L. Woodward, Charleroi.

BIG MARKET DAY LOOKED FOR SATURDAY

Providing the weather is good the most successful crop market of the season is expected tomorrow morning at Sixth street. Indications that the marketing season for green produce is well under way was afforded last Tuesday when the curb market supply was surprisingly large. Owing to the large supply and the rainy weather at that time, not all was sold.

The mid-summer garden truck is now coming in. Blackberries and beans and other seasonable delicacies are to be had in abundance.

PRETTY WEDDING OCCURS THURSDAY AT LOCAL CHURCH

St. Mary's Episcopal church was the scene Thursday evening of a very pretty wedding, when the ceremony was performed uniting Alexander Turnbull of Charleroi and Miss Maud Harris of Kittanning, the daughter of James Harris of that city. The beautiful Episcopal ceremony was read by the rector of the parish, Rev. Lucius W. Shey, the ring service being used.

The bride was becomingly attired in a traveling costume. She was attended by Mrs. Robert Turnbull, a sister-in-law of the groom. The bride is a charming young woman who has lived in Kittanning all her life. Mr. Turnbull is a well known and promising young man of Charleroi who is employed at the Pittsburgh Steel plant at Monessen.

After receiving congratulations and best wishes from those present, the young couple departed for a short wedding journey. They will make their home in Charleroi.

Burgess and Four Councilmen Are to be Elected

ELECTION LIST FILED

The September primaries will be most important in the borough of Charleroi. Because in the municipal elections this fall, the principal borough offices are to be filled. Following is a list of officials to be voted for.

Burgess, four councilmen, two school directors, tax collector, assessor, one auditor, six judges of election, inspectors and six registry assessors. Borough clerk Ira L. Nickeson has filed his list of the offices to be filled with the proper county authorities. Burgess George W. Risbeck's term will be out, and the terms of Councilmen Oscar C. Linn, W. H. Calvert, Dr. A. O. Davis and Frank Riva will expire. H. J. Booth and J. M. Hill's terms as members of the school board will be ended. H. F. Parsons is the auditor whose term will expire. L. J. Mitchell will remain as a member of the board of auditors. All election officers for all precincts are to be chosen.

RECEPTION GIVEN FOR TWO GRADES

The annual reception to the members of the home department and the cradle roll of the Washington avenue Presbyterian church was held Thursday afternoon.

About 60 members of the home department were present and 50 represented the cradle roll. An interesting program was rendered. Music was furnished by the Misses Bethel Bowman, Emma Clutter, Elma Collins and Mamie Rockwell. Miss Marie Whitehead gave a reading. The reports of both organizations indicated a good year's work.

Standing of Pony Contestants.

Standing will be published weekly or semi-weekly. Watch the votes grow. Some have many votes ready to deposit, so those at head of list may be surprised soon. The lowest still has a chance if they work hard enough. The following persons have charge of the tabulation of votes: T. R. Eagye, Pierce Ferguson, Ella Phalan and Sadie Smith. FOR THE FARMERS.

To encourage farmers in western Pennsylvania to resume the making of apple vinegar and thus save thousands of bushels of valuable apples
from rotting each year, the U. S.
department of agriculture, through
the bureau of chemistry has just issued a special notice telling these apple raisers of their rights. Some years ago a great deal of misunderstanding and misinformation regarding the Pennsylvania vinegar law got into circulation according to the New Castle Herald.

Some dealers became afraid to handle the farmer's vinegar, thinking it would not meet the requirements. Farmers allowed their apples to rot upon the ground for the same reason. The present Pennsylvania law reads that vinegar shall be the legitimate product of pure apple juice.

Dealers should be not afraid of handling farm vinegar furnished by reliable parties. And when the farmer has made the vinegar himself and knows that it is made from pure apple juice he need not hesitate to sell and guarantee it. He will be absolutely within his rights in doing so.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, praising her father at a dinner in Washington, said:

"I very much enjoy my father's
gift of epigram. I still remember a recent epigram of his. It followed a luncheon whereat a Princeton graduate, 1913, had altogether monopolized
the talk. My father, apropos of this wise youth, said on the way home:
"The younger a man is, the more he
has to unlearn."

In the August Woman's Home
Companion, Zona Gale, writing an article entitled "Ethics and Cooks," puts great emphasis on cooking, not
as an accomplishment but as a great profession and social service. Following is an extract:

"Next to the divine within and with-
out humanity, the most precious thing
that we know anything about is human life. Human life is conditioned by nourishment and warmth. Everything that is accomplished is accomplished with human energy as its medium. Therefore the basis of all physical life and activity is food and
human efficiency depends largely on
its wise or unwise administration.

"No one dissents from this, in theory. Yet with the utmost composure we continue in practice to leave this performance of the vital physical
need in the hands of amateurs, ignorant alike of the properties of the
foods that they cook and the needs of the bodies that they feed. By these amateurs I mean some servants and I mean some housekeepers."

next shipment the man pulled up the

PROUD OF HIS SELF-CONTROL

Mrs. Brown Could Agree With Her
Liege Lord, Too, That It Was Something Uncommon.

Mr. Brown was excitable by nature,
but he often prided himself audibly
upon his self-control. One night while
the family were gathered at the tea-
table the chimney began to roar; the furnace draft had been opened and forgotten. Straightway a panic ensued.
"Don't lose your heads—keep cool!"
cried Mr. Brown. "It's nothing serious."

He dashed up the stairs, discovered
that the metal cap over the only unused stovepipe hole was already red
hot, and dashed down again faster
than he went up.

"Keep cool!" he gasped, as he passed through the room where the
family had gathered in nervous apprehension. "I'll be back in a minute."

He was back in less than that time,
having observed that the flames were spouting several feet high from the
chimney, and that a shower of sparks
was falling upon the roof.

"Where's the step-ladder?" he
panted.

He was gone before anyone could
answer the question, and presently
was heard bellowing from the roof of
the woodshed. He presented an heroic
chimney.

"I've got one end of the hose!" he called. "Some one attach the other end and turn on the water—quick!"

Two long minutes passed.

"Why doesn't some one do as I ordered?" he thundered. "Do you want
the place to burn up?"

"We can't, Henry!" called Mrs.
Brown, tremblingly. "You haven't got
the hose—you've got the cow-ropes. It was hanging next to the hose in the shed. And anyway, the roof is covered with ice, and I don't think there's any great danger outside. You'd better go and watch the chimney from the inside."

A half-hour later the family were
again at the tea table.

"If this had happened in some
'bomes,' remarked Mr. Brown, "the family would have lost their heads completely and sent in an alarm. Self-control is an excellent thing—and far
from common."

"Indeed it is!" agreed Mrs. Brown,
emphatically.—Youth's Companion.

Destiny of America.

A nation is not a conglomeration of
voters, to be represented by hungry
politicians empowered to partition
the spoils of office, but a people animated by a common impulse and seeking to work out a common destiny. The destiny of America is mutual service; labor is the corner stone
of our nationality, the labor of each
for all.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Insatiable Ambition.

"I hope our ambitious friend is satisfied," said the philosophic observer.
"He has prospered so that he can do
as he pleases." "Yes. But that doesn't content him. While he is doing as he pleases he wants everybody to quit work and applaud him for doing it so
nicely."—Washington Star.

Law of the Harvest.

The law of the harvest is to reap more than you sow. Sow an act and you reap a habit; sow a habit and you reap a character; sow a character and you reap destiny.—George D. Boardman.

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE PALACE-CHARLEROI.

Two big features at the Palace this week proved attractive of more than usual interest. The first was "The Devil's Daughter," in three parts, presented by a star cast. The story is unique. A woman whose chief fault is jealousy and whose conscience is blunted by unscrupulous plotting and scheming spoils one nice love affair, in order to gain the love of the man. This she accomplishes. Her regard for him then turns to hatred, and she tries to inveigle a doctor who in turn has fallen into love with the cast-off sweetheart of the first named man. She fails after arousing the insane jealousy of her new lover. Her lover plots to kill her and himself, but she prevents this by professing intense devotion to him. In the meantime a Bohemian whose daughter had been injured through the offices of the "Devil's Daughter" set fire to the house where the two are and they are consumed. Then the doctor marries and there is happiness. The other big feature was "Disaster at Big Eagle Mine." This story is one of revenge where an Indian explodes a mine killing several because of enmity to some of the heads of the mining corporation. Other features this week were: "Love and War," "The Gipsy Band," "Mother's Boy" and "The Great Pearl."

THE COYLE-CHARLEROI.

"The Sorrows of Israel" a three-reel production for which the scenes were laid in Russia, in which the massacre of Jews is shown as an incident of tragic romance was a picture this week that attracted much interest at the Coyle. The story deals with the betrothal of a young Russian nobleman and a prince of the blood. The girl's real sweetheart is a young Jew—a student at a military college. They arrange for marriage to find their union is opposed. A prince, who is in love with the girl arouses some of the subjects of the czar to action and they start wholesale persecution of the Jews. The young Jew casts his lot with Nihilists and passes through the test of admission, only to get arrested. He is rescued and the last seen shows the couple sailing into New York harbor, where the Statue of Liberty extends to them its welcoming arms. A comedy that was possessed of all the elements that go to make up a successful drama of the kind was "Maid and the Milkman." Other features of the week were "Friendly Neighbors," "Fortune's Pet," "The Scar," and "Aladin's Awakening—Dad's Surprise." Announcement is being made of a feature for the coming week, "Gettysburg Reunion" to be shown according to booking on Tuesday, July 22. It shows the president and other notables at the reunion.

THE STAR-CHARLEROI.

At the Star this week the chief feature to attract notice in the general review was a picture "Flooded Mine." This was presented in three reels, the story told being a most vivid one illustrating the horrors and experience incident to the unlooked for flooding of a mine. "To Reno and Back" was another feature that claimed interest, because of the notoriety of the Nevada divorce resort. Other pictures that claimed special attention were: "ETAOI ETAOI NTAOI" attention were: "Great Harmony," "Rose Festival," "After the Massacre," "The Kiss," "Business Women," "Hubby's Job—Twist Love and Fire," "Countryman's Romance," "Dream Home" and "Cripple Folly." Pictures booked ahead that are expected to prove of unusual interest are "The Miser" a two reel production and the next weekly No. 21.

THE HIPPODROME-PITTSBURG.

The bill for next week at the Hippodrome in Forbes Field while not complete, has a few acts booked that will give an idea of the sterling excellence of the offerings that will be made by the management for the entertainment of the amusement seeking public. For those who like to see energetic, attractive and winsome girls there is an act known as Nick's Skating Girls in which six comely young women fly about the big center ring on rollers. The girls do several ensemble numbers, solos, duets and trios. It is without question the biggest skating act in vaudeville. The Six Brown Bros. need no introduction to local theatre goers because there are many who argue that it is the best musical act on the stage. From start to finish the performance is a continuous scream with false heads being knocked off and clothes being whisked from them while flying through the air. The Juggling Movatts, the best club swingers in American entertainment will be another big feature number.

THE GRAND-PITTSBURG.

A delightful prospect presents itself to the patrons of the Grand Opera House where during the week beginning Monday afternoon July 21st and twice each day, the popular Harry Davis Stock company will enact David Belasco's magnificent and immortal story of California, "The Girl of the Golden West." It is a particularly fortuitous circumstance that the new leading woman of the Davis Players, Miss Irene Oshier, who is happily remembered for her splendid work in the principle role in the Broadway production of "The Poor Little Rich Girl," is to signalize her connection with the local organization by interpreting Blanche Bates' original role "The Girl." Miss Oshier has had a career rich in experience and brilliant in achievement. New York has learned to regard her as one of the ablest leading women in America. Mr. Davis plans an exceptionally interesting production and will take advantage of every opportunity Mr. Belasco has offered in the way of unique effects, and the depiction of the grandeur of California scenery. The prologue pictures are intended to put the audience in a proper frame of mind to understand the types of men and women with whom the author deals and the conception of the grandeur of California the gold excitement of '49 and '50 will be graphic and atmospheric as will also the settings of unique effects with which the four acts are invested.

SPEAKEASIES ARE

PULLED THE STORY FROM FAYETTE CITY

Officers made a raid on two supposed liquor in the places. They will all Thursday night arresting the alleged proprietors and several well-known people of that city.

The officers have been accumulating evidence against the two places for some time and claim that they have the names of at least 100 well-known men who are alleged to have purchased liquor in the places. They will all be summoned as witnesses when the hearing is held and many of them are quaking in their boots.

Several have left town fearing it is said, that they will be compelled to appear at the hearing.

RIVER RISES BUT

NOT RAPIDLY SO AS TO CAUSE A FLOOD

After attaining a stage of 18 1/2 feet from rains of Thursday along the water course the Monongahela river began to fall shortly after midnight. No further rise is expected unless there are heavy storms later today at headquarters. At Fairmont the rainfall reported this morning for the previous 24 hours was 1.25 inches.

FUNERAL OF FRED

ESTENFELDER TO BE HELD SATURDAY

Arrangements have been made to hold the funeral of Fred Esterfelder who died Thursday at St. Jerome's Catholic church on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock with requiem high mass. Interment will be in the Charleroi cemetery.

"Seaside Cocktail."

Mix a pretty girl with a holiday boy and soak them in moonlight till midnight. Squeeze into a tiny corner of the pier. Stir well with the music of love waltzes. Serve with an engagement ring.—Marquis of Queensberry.

Self-Cure.

Regstaff—Sometimes I lie awake half the night. Are you ever troubled with insomnia? Porcollum—Never. When I'm wakeful I begin to repeat to myself some of my early poems, and I fall asleep in no time.

Georgia Syntax.

On account of not being able to get power and the copy for grand jury presentments was also late in reaching us, is the cause of us getting the paper out late this week.

Indexing extraordinary.

Indexers have been responsible for many errors, but possibly the strangest example of curious indexing occurs in a law book. Turning over its index, a correspondent of the London Chronicle noted the entry: "Best, Mr. Justice, His Great Mind," and reference to the page brought this: "Mr. Justice Best said he had a great mind to commit the witness for contempt of court."

SAYS ALL WOMEN ARE LIARS

German Diplomat, Who Got the "Mittens," Declares Fair Sex Deficient Morally.

"All women are liars and are deficient in their sense of moral duty." This and more is the opinion of Baron Herrmann von Kuhlmann of Bavaria, unmarried and attached to German embassy at Peking, who arrived on the Chiyo Maru recently.

According to fellow passengers, the baron formed his views on the voyage when his attentions to Miss Katherine Enright of Chicago did not meet with hearty response.

"A woman cannot recognize the same moral responsibility as a man," said the baron. "No marriage can remain a happy one for more than a year. By that time a man will lose faith in his wife."

Then, turning to Miss Enright, the baron said:

"We have had a pleasant trip. But to have you for a wife if I could—never! You are too energetic."

Returning to the interview, the baron continued:

"Woman is illogical and untrustworthy. She changes her mind too frequently. Woman has no feeling requiring her to tell the truth. In Germany a man and wife are comrades, but in America—never. Here the women are proud and selfish and the men suffer for it."

Advice About Reading.

Be sure, then, to read no, mean books; shun the spawn of the press in the gossip of the hour. Do not read what you shall learn, without asking, in the street and the train. Dr. Johnson said he "always went into stately shops," and good travelers stop at the best hotels; for though they cost more they do not cost much more, and there is the good company and the best information. In like manner the scholar knows that the famous books contain, first and last, the best thoughts and facts. . . . The three practical rules, then, which I have to offer are (1) Never read any book that is not a year old. (2) Never read any but famed books. (3) Never read any but what you like.—Emerson

Run to Extremes.

A single man is seldom as good as his sweetheart thinks he is, or a married man as bad as his wife suspects he is.

More Likely.

The girl who thinks no man is good enough for her may be right, but it is more likely that she is merely spoiled.

Sometimes It's Himself.

When a man wears a flower in his buttonhole it is not his wife's fault, is it?

Took First Position.

Mr. William Milligan Sloane, "Seth Low" professor of history at Columbia university, in an interview with the London Daily Mail correspondent, said: "I understand that a certain Berlin correspondent of a New York newspaper received a cablegram from his editor which read, 'Don't send much war news; world's baseball series now on!'"

FOR THE FARMERS.
To encourage farmers in western Pennsylvania to resume the making of
apple vinegar and thus save thousands of bushels of valuable apples
from rotting each year, the U. S.
Department of agriculture, through
the bureau of chemistry has just issued a special notice telling these apple raisers of their rights. Some ears ago a great deal of misunder-
standing and misinformation regarding the Pennsylvania vinegar law got to circulation according to the New astle Herald.
Some dealers became afraid to
handle the farmer's vinegar, thinking it would not meet the requirements. Farmers allowed their apples
to rot upon the ground for the same reason. The present Pennsylvania
law reads that vinegar shall be the genuine product of pure apple juice.
Dealers should be not afraid of
handling farm vinegar furnished by liable parties. And when the farmer has made the vinegar himself and shows that it is made from pure apple juice he need not hesitate to sell and guarantee it. He will be solately within his rights in doing

PICKED UP IN PASSING

Miss Jessie Woodrow Wilson, praising her father at a dinner in Washington, said:
"I very much enjoy my father's
gift of epigram. I still remember a recent epigram of his. It followed a luncheon whereat a Princeton graduate, 1913, had altogether monopolized
the talk. My father, apropos of
this wise youth, said on the way home:
"The younger a man is, the more he
has to unlearn."

In the August Woman's Home
Companion, Zona Gale, writing an article entitled "Ethics and Cooks,"
puts great emphasis on cooking, not
as an accomplishment but as a great profession and social service. Following is an extract:
"Next to the divine within and with-
out humanity, the most precious thing
that we know anything about is human life. Human life is conditioned
by nourishment and warmth. Everything that is accomplished is accomplished with human energy as its medium. Therefore the basis of all
physical life and activity is food and
human efficiency depends largely on
its wise or unwise administration.
"No one dissents from this, in theory.
Yet with the utmost composure
we continue in practice to leave this
performance of the vital physical
need in the hands of amateurs, ignorant alike of the properties of the
foods that they cook and the needs of
the bodies that they feed. By these amateurs I mean some servants and
I mean some housekeepers."

Community in News.

At a friend's southern hunting lodge his wife has learned that her "ring-up" on the telephone is accompanied by the click of receivers all along the line. Every one is obviously listening to what she says. On one occasion a telegram was telephoned to the lodge, and the following day, when her husband met a rural neighbor on the road, the latter drew rein to cense.

"Mr. Grey," said he, "I didn't catch th' first part o' that telegram we got yesterday."
Mr. Grey accordingly enlightened his ignorance forthwith—New York

Farmer's Suggestion.

A Florida farmer who was raising strawberries for the market sent a shipment to New York and the commission merchant wrote back that the berries were too ripe, consequently poor prices and small return checks, so next time the grower picked them earlier and the results were about the same, as the New York man said they were too green for the market; so the next shipment the man pulled up the plants by the roots, packed them in boxes and said, "You can pick them when just right for your particular market."

Better Days Coming.

been up before me," said the Cleve-

PROUD OF HIS SELF-CONTROL

Mrs. Brown Could Agree With Her
Liege Lord, Too, That It Was Something Uncommon.

Mr. Brown was excitable by nature,
but he often prided himself audibly
upon his self-control. One night while
the family were gathered at the tea
table the chimney began to roar; the
furnace draft had been opened and forgotten. Straightway a panic ensued.
"Don't lose your heads—keep cool!"
cried Mr. Brown. "It's nothing serious."

He dashed up the stairs, discovered
that the metal cap over the only un-
used stovepipe hole was already red
hot, and dashed down again faster
than he went up.

"Keep cool!" he gasped, as he
passed through the room where the
family had gathered in nervous apprehension. "I'll be back in a minute."

He was back in less than that time,
having observed that the flames were
spouting several feet high from the
chimney, and that a shower of sparks
was falling upon the roof.

"Where's the step-ladder?" he
panted.

He was gone before anyone could
answer the question, and presently
was heard bellowing from the roof of
chimney.

"I've got one end of the hose!" he
called. "Some one attach the other
end and turn on the water—quick!"

Two long minutes passed.

"Why doesn't some one do as I ordered?" he thundered. "Do you want
the place to burn up?"

"We can't, Henry!" called Mrs.
Brown, tremblingly. "You haven't got
the hose—you've got the cow-ropes. It
was hanging next to the hose in the
shed. And anyway, the roof is covered
with ice, and I don't think there's any
great danger outside. You'd better go
and watch the chimney from the inside."

A half-hour later the family were
again at the tea table.

"If this had happened in some homes," remarked Mr. Brown, "the family would have lost their heads
completely and sent in an alarm. Self-
control is an excellent thing—and far
from common."

"Indeed it is!" agreed Mrs. Brown,
emphatically.—Youth's Companion.

Destiny of America.

A nation is not a conglomeration of
voters, to be represented by hungry
politicians empowered to partition
the spoils of office, but a people animated by a common impulse and
seeking to work out a common destiny. The destiny of America is mutual service; labor is the corner stone
of our nationality, the labor of each
for all.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Insatiable Ambition.

"I hope our ambitious friend is satisfied," said the philosophic observer.
"He has prospered so that he can do
as he pleases." "Yes. But that doesn't content him. While he is doing as he pleases he wants everybody to gull
work and applaud him for doing it so
nicely."—Washington Star.

AMONG THE THEATRES

THE PALACE-CHARLEROI

Two big features at the Palace this week, proved attractions of more than usual interest. The first was "The Devil's Daughter," in three parts, presented by a star cast. The story is unique. A woman whose chief fault is jealousy and whose conscience is blunted by unscrupulous plotting and scheming spoils one nice love affair, in order to gain the love of the man. This she accomplishes. Her regard for him then turns to hatred, and she tries to inveigle a doctor who in turn has fallen into love with the cast-off sweetheart of the first named man. She fails after arousing the insane jealousy of her new lover. Her lover plots to kill her and himself, but she prevents this by professing intense devotion to him. In the meantime a Bohemian whose daughter had been injured through the offices of the "Devil's Daughter" set fire to the house where the two are and they are consumed. Then the doctor marries and there is happiness. The other big feature was "Disaster at Big Eagle Mine." This story is one of romance where an Indian explodes a mine killing several because of enmity to some of the heads of the mining corporation. Other features this week were: "Love and War," "The Gipsy Band," "Mother's Boy" and "The Great Pearl."

THE COYLE-CHARLEROI

"The Sorrows of Israel" a three-reel production for which the scenes were laid in Russia, in which the massacre of Jews is shown as an incident of tragic romance was a picture this week that attracted much interest at the Coyle. The story deals with the betrothal of a young Russian nobleman and a prince of the blood. The girl's real sweetheart is a young Jew—a student at a military college. They arrange for marriage to find their union is opposed. A prince, who is in love with the girl arouses some of the subjects of the czar to action and they start wholesale persecution of the Jews. The young Jew casts his lot with Nihilists and passes through the test of admission, only to get arrested. He is rescued and the last seen shows the couple sailing into New York harbor, where the Statue of Liberty extends to them its welcoming arms. A comedy that was possessed of all the elements that go to make up a successful drama of the kind was "Maid and the Milkman." Other features of the week were "Friendly Neighbors," "Fortune's Pet," "The Scar," and "Aladdin's Awakening—Dad's Surprise." Announcement is being made of a feature for the coming week, "Gettysburg Reunion" to be shown according to booking on Tuesday, July 22. It shows the president and other notables at the reunion.

THE STAR-CHARLEROI

At the Star this week the chief feature to attract notice in the general review was a picture "Flooded Mine." This was presented in three reels, the story told being a most vivid one illustrating the horrors and experience incident to the unlooked for flooding of a mine. "To Reno and Back" was another feature that claimed interest, because of the notoriety of the Nevada divorce resort. Other pictures that claimed special attention were: "Great Harmony," "Rose Festival," "After the Massacre," "The Kiss," "Business Women," "Hubby's Job—Twist Love and Fire," "Countryman's Romance," "Dream Home" and "Cripple Folly." Pictures booked ahead that are expected to prove of unusual interest are "The Miser," a two reel production and the musical weekly No. 21.

THE HIPPODROME-PITTSBURG.

The bill for next week at the Hippodrome in Forbes Field while not complete, has a few acts booked that will give an idea of the sterling excellence of the offerings that will be made by the management for the entertainment of the amusement seeking public. For those who like to see energetic, attractive and winsome girls there is an act known as Nick's Skating Girls in which six comely young women fly about the big center ring on rollers. The girls do several ensemble numbers, solos, duets and trios. It is without question the biggest skating act in vaudeville. The Six Brown Bros. need no introduction to local theatre goers because there are many who argue that it is the best musical act on the stage. From start to finish the performance is a continuous scream with false heads being knocked off and clothes being whisked from them while flying through the air. The Juggling Mowatts, the best club swingers in American entertainment will be another big feature number.

THE GRAND-PITTSBURG.

A delightful prospect presents itself to the patrons of the Grand Opera House where during the week beginning Monday afternoon July 21st and twice each day, the popular Harry Davis Stock company will enact David Belasco's magnificent and immortal story of California, "The Girl of the Golden West." It is a particularly tortuous circumstance that the new leading woman of the Davis Players, Miss Irene Oshier, who is happily remembered for her splendid work in the principle role in the Broadway production of "The Poor Little Rich Girl," is to signalize her connection with the local organization by interpreting Blanche Bates' original role "The Girl." Miss Oshier has had a career rich in experience and brilliant in achievement. New York has learned to regard her as one of the ablest leading women in America. Mr. Davis plans an exceptionally interesting production and will take advantage of every opportunity Mr. Belasco has offered in the way of unique effects, and the depiction of the grandeur of California scenery. The prologue pictures are intended to put the audience in a proper frame of mind to understand the types of men and women with whom the author deals and the conception of the grandeur of California the gold excitement of '49 and '50 will be graphic and atmospheric as will also the settings of unique effects with which the four acts are invested.

SPEAKEASIES ARE PULLED THE STORY FROM FAYETTE CITY

Officers made a raid on two supposed liquor in the places. They will all Thursday night arresting the alleged proprietors and several well-known people of that city. The officers have been accumulating evidence against the two places for some time and claim that they have the names of at least 100 well-known men who are alleged to have purchased liquor in the places. They will all be summoned as witnesses when the hearing is held and many of them are quaking in their boots. Several have left town fearing it is said, that they will be compelled to appear at the hearing.

RIVER RISES BUT NOT RAPIDLY SO AS TO CAUSE A FLOOD

After attaining a stage of 18 1-2 feet from rains of Thursday along the water course the Monongahela river began to fall shortly after midnight. No further rise is expected unless there are heavy storms later today at headquarters. At Fairmont the rainfall reported this morning for the previous 24 hours was 1.25 inches.

FUNERAL OF FRED ESTENFELDER TO BE HELD SATURDAY

Arrangements have been made to hold the funeral of Fred Estenfelder who died Thursday at St. Jerome's Catholic church on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock with requiem high mass. Interment will be in the Charleroi cemetery.

"Seaside Cocktail." Mix a pretty girl with a holiday boy and soak them in moonlight till midnight. Squeeze into a tiny corner of the pier. Stir well with the music of love waltzes. Serve with an engagement ring.—Marquis of Queensberry.

Self-Cure. Regstaff—Sometimes I lie awake half the night. Are you ever troubled with insomnia? Porcoium—Never. When I'm wakeful I begin to repeat to myself some of my early poems, and I fall asleep in no time.

Georgia Syntax. On account of not being able to get power and the copy for grand jury presentments was also late in reaching us, is the cause of us getting the paper out late this week.

Indexing Extraordinary. Indexers have been responsible for many errors, but possibly the strangest example of curious indexing occurs in a law book. Turning over its index, a correspondent of the London Chronicle noted the entry: "Best, Mr. Justice, His Great Mind," and reference to the page brought this: "Mr. Justice Best said he had a great mind to commit the witness for contempt of court."

German Diplomat, Who Got the "Mittelschmerz," Declares Fair Sex Deficient Morally.

"All women are liars and are deficient in their sense of moral duty." This and more is the opinion of Baron Herrmann von Kuhlmann of Bavaria, unmarried and attached to German embassy at Peking, who arrived on the Chiyo Maru recently.

According to fellow passengers, the baron formed his views on the voyage when his attentions to Miss Katherine Enright of Chicago did not meet with hearty response.

"A woman cannot recognize the same moral responsibility as a man," said the baron. "No marriage can remain a happy one for more than a year. By that time a man will lose faith in his wife."

Then, turning to Miss Enright, the baron said:

"We have had a pleasant trip. But to have you for a wife if I could--never! You are too energetic."

Returning to the interview, the baron continued:

"Woman is illogical and untrustworthy. She changes her mind too frequently. Woman has no feeling requiring her to tell the truth. In Germany a man and wife are comrades, but in America--never. Here the women are proud and selfish and the men suffer for it."

Advice About Reading.

Be sure, then, to read no, mean books; shun the spawn of the press in the gossip of the hour. Do not read what you shall learn, without asking, in the street and the train. Dr. Johnson said he "always went into stately shops," and good travelers stop at the best hotels; for though they cost more they do not cost much more, and there is the good company and the best information. In like manner the scholar knows that the famous books contain, first and last, the best thoughts and facts. . . . The three practical rules, then, which I have to offer are (1) Never read any book that is not a year old. (2) Never read any but famed books. (3) Never read any but what you like.--Emerson

Rush to Extremes.

A single man is seldom as good as his sweetheart thinks he is, or a married man as bad as his wife suspects he is.

More Likely.

The girl who thinks no man is good enough for her may be right, but it is more likely that she is merely spoiled.

Sometimes It's Himself.

When a man wears a flower in his buttonhole it indicates that he is a person of the highest class.

Took First Position.

Mr. William Milligan Sloane, "Seth Low" professor of history at Columbia university, in an interview with the London Daily Mail correspondent, said: "I understand that a certain Berlin correspondent of a New York newspaper received a cablegram from his editor which read, 'Don't send much war news; world's baseball series now on!'"
